

The seal of the State of West Virginia is a large, circular emblem in the background. It features a yellow outer ring with the words "STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA" in blue capital letters. Inside the ring is a central illustration of two men, one in a yellow coat and one in a red coat, standing on a green field. The man in the yellow coat is holding a rifle, and the man in the red coat is holding a pickaxe. The illustration is set against a white background with a blue border. The seal is surrounded by a rope-like border.
